

1

"The other side of the earth," my teacher said.

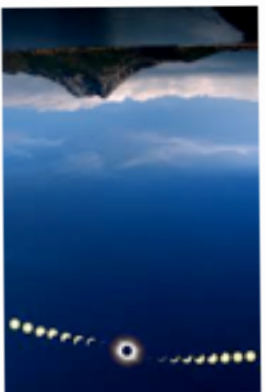

1

"Where does the sun go when I am in my bed?"

By Sharon Macdonald

Eclipse

"Greet?" I said, "Yes," she said, "They greet in an eclipse." "That's very hard to say," I said, "With only these two lips." 7

"What happens to the moon when I go out to play?" 3

"It hides on the nighttime side. It doesn't like the day." 4

"Will they crash together some day? I mean, will they ever meet?" 5

"Yes, they will," she said, "But they won't crash, they'll greet." 6